My Cat

→ It was a sunny day. An old woman, named Holly, was watering her garden, while her cat, named Sam, was climbing up to a large tree.

Much time later, Holly was looking for her cat to play with him. But she noticed it was missing. She found out him laying on the tree outside. She was shocked. "How did he reach there?" - was asking Holly herself.

She realised that she could not help her pet and she called a brigade. Meanwhile she tried to tweet Sam, but her attempts were not successful.

Later a rescue team came. They could help on the upset woman and her pet. Thanks to them Sam was in safety at home. So fire fighters are strong brave people, who can do a lot of things to citizens and their safety. For example, this situation of bringing down a cat.

Eventually, the woman and her cat are happy at their home with a gorgeous garden. Remember about our body guards like police men, fire fighters, doctors etc. They will help citizens any time, every where.
