Lucky and the trees

I was growing flowers in my garden when my cat climbed up a tree. When I saw it I felt scared. I tried to make my cat come down but he couldn't. I was really scared.

Then I decided to find a rescue. I called the rescue brigade. They told me that they would be here in 15 minutes. While they were going I was trying to support my cat. I thought, "If I show him a fish he will tempt down," but it didn't work. The I saw he was scared too.

Eventually the rescue brigade had come. I saw their car. I opened the door and let them go in. "Hello, what happened?" they asked. I told them, "My cat has climbed up a tree and can't come back down." They said, "Oh, that's a pity. Where is the tree?" I showed them that tree and they tempt down my favourite cat.

"What's his name?" asked me the rescue brigade. "Lucky," I told them. I wanted to thank them so I offered to drink some tea.

We were sitting in my house. I was treating the brigade with tea and cookie. I felt so so happy. I hugged Lucky. My cat was safe. It was one of the happiest and coolest moments ever.
